UVODNIK

“Svetski dan čišćenja” obeležen je jednom od najvećih građanskih akcija u svetu. Iako je ovo bio prvi put da je ovakva akcija organizovana, ona je sprovedena istovremeno u preko 113 država i podržana od preko 20 miliona volontera. Cilj ove akcije je bio da se istovremeno pozabavimo globalnim problemom otpada, posebno čvrstim i morskim otpadom.

Kosovo se pridružilo ovom danu, ali za razliku od većine drugih zemalja, Kosovska vlada je odlučila da sprovede ovu akciju u periodu od tri meseca, odnosno od 15. septembra do 15. decembra 2018. godine. Stanje naše životne sredine zbog nekontrolisanog bacanja otpada, posebno duž puteva, opravdava organizovanje ove aktivnosti.

Srećom, prvog dana ove akcije učešće volontera bilo je vrlo zadovoljavajuće. Prema podacima Ministarstva životne sredine i prostornog planiranja, više od 100.000 dobrovoljaca pridružilo se akciji čišćenja 15. septembra.

Časopis For You čestita svima onima koji su učestvovali u ovoj akciji i apelujemo na sve vas da nastavite da je podržavate, jer na ovaj način poboljšavamo kvalitet naših života.

Međutim, čak i ako ne možete učestvovati u akcijama čišćenja koje će se odvijati u naredna tri meseca, molimo vas da ne zaboravite da možete doprineti održavanju čiste životne sredine tako što nećete bacati smeće tamo gde ne bi trebalo.

Do našeg sledećeg susreta, želim vam čistu životnu sredinu!

EDITORIAL

"World Cleanup Day" was marked with one of the largest civic actions in the world. Although this was the first time it was organized, this action was conducted simultaneously in over 113 states and was supported by over 20 million volunteers. The goal of this action was to address for one day at the same time the global waste problem, in particular solid and marine waste.

Kosovo joined this day, but in contrary to most other countries, the Kosovo government has decided to conduct this action for a three month period, namely from September 15th, to December 15th, 2018. The situation of our living environment due to uncontrolled throwing of waste, in particular along the roads justifies the organizing of this activity.

Fortunately, on the first day of this action the volunteers' participation was very satisfactory. According to the data from the Ministry of Environment and Spatial Planning over 100,000 volunteers joined the cleaning action of September 15th.

For you Magazine congratulates all those that took part in this action and we appeal to all to continue supporting it because this way we improve the quality of our lives.

However, even if you cannot participate in the cleaning actions that will be conducted during the next three months, please don't forget that you can contribute in maintaining a clean environment by not throwing garbage where you are not supposed to.

Until our next meeting I wish you a clean environment!

OSNOVNA ŠKOLA „MILADIN MITIĆ“, LAPLJE SELO

direktor škole, Ljubiša Karadžić

Tokom više decenija rada Osnovna škola „Miladin Mitić“ u Lapljem Selu obrazovala je i vaspitala mnoge generacije đaka koji su kroz srednje škole, fakultete i kasnije preduzeća i ustanove u kojima su radili prenosili stečeno znanje i time podizali ugled ove obrazovne ustanove.

Nedavno je obeležila 127. godina svog postojanja. Pored matične škole, nastava se održava i u izdvojenom odeljenjima u Čaglavici i Preocu (od prvog do četvrtog razreda, kao i dve predškolske grupe), a ukupno je pohađa preko 450 đaka. Današnji objekat datira iz 1962. godine, a prvi učitelji i organizatori predavanja u njoj bila su sveštena lica. Škola je rad prekidala za vreme Prvog i Drugog svetskog rata. Ime „Miladin Mitić“ nosi ime po heroju Narodnooslobodilačke vojske iz ovih krajeva.

Ljubiša Karadžić, direktor Osnovne škole „Miladin Mitić“ u Lapljem Selu kaže za naš magazin da đaci ove škole na opštinskim i regionalnim takmičenjima u svim oblastima postižu zapažene rezultate, a posebno su dobri u prirodnim naukama. Ističe da iako nema dovoljno kabineta za praktičnu nastavu, učenici postižu zavidne rezultate.

“Mi u Osnovnoj školi imamo samo kabinet informatike koji je potpuno opremljen sa Internetom, kompjuterima, interaktivnom tablom. U protekloj školskoj godini dosta je infrastrukturno odrađeno uz pomoć lokalne samouprave, plato na kome se nalazimo nije postojao, uređenje dvorišta, krečenje škole, podova. Nažalost zbog nekih tehničkih problema fiskulturnu salu još nismo završili i nadamo se da će to biti završeno uskoro“, objašnjava Karadžić. U školi su aktivne brojne sekcije, počev od onih umetničkih, kao što su likovna i muzička, ali takođe postoje i recitatorska, literarna, kao i neke sportske.

Prema njegovim rečima najveći problem sa kojim se suočavaju je nedostatak prostora, jer Gimnazija i Ekonomsko- trgovinska škola iz Prištine, od 1999. rade u prostorijama ove škole u Lapljem selu. On dodaje da škola ima bogatu tradiciju, da se može pohvaliti kvalitetnim nastavnim kadrom, kao i da su svi nastavnici stručno osposobljeni.

Ljubiša Karadžić je ponosan na uspehe svojih đaka i kaže da u školi nema vršnjačkog nasilja. “Ova škola iznedrila je generacije i generacije pametnih, vrednih i uspešnih ljudi koji se rado sećaju vremena provedenog u njoj. Rad čitave škole i svih nastavnika usmeren je i dan danas ka istom cilju, a to je kvalitetno obrazovanje i vaspitanje mladih naraštaja”, naglašava on.

Magazin For You redovno dobijaju u školi, dosta je čitan i posebno popularan kod učenika od V do VIII razreda.

Na kraju razgovora za naš magazin, direktor Karadžić poručuje našim čitaocima da je za uspeh u životu neophodan neprestan rad i disciplina.

“Poruka đacima je da je obrazovanje ključ svega, kao i disciplina. Danas svi učenici imaju zagarantovana prava, ali je bitno i da učenici cene rad i trud svojih nastavnika. Oni su ti koji im prenose znanja i životna iskustva, stoga je bitno da učenici prepoznaju njihov trud. U današnjoj eri modernih tehnologija, takođe je bitno za sve mlade da što više čitaju, da neprestano rade na sebi, jer će takvim ponašanjem ostvariti kvalitetnu i uspešnu budućnost”, smatra Ljubiša Karadžić, direktor Osnovne škole „Miladin Mitić“.

Upitnik

VOLITE LI VIŠE MAČKE ILI PSE I ZAŠTO?

Dara Antusijević (13)

Ja zapravo najviše volim divlje životinje, lavove, tigrove. Želja mi je da mi uspem jednog dana da pripitomim neku divlju životinju.

Naravno imam kućne ljubimce, i mačku i psa. Ako bih trebala da biram odlučila bih se pre za mačku zato što njih više volim, lepše su mi, umiljate.

Dara Antusijević (13)

I really like wild animals, lions, tigers. My wish is that one day I will be able to tame some wild animal. Of course I have pets, a cat and a dog. If I had to choose, I'd rather choose a cat because I prefer them more, they are more beautiful, cuddly.

AndreaGvozdenović (13)

Mnogo volim životinje, pa je to i razlog zašto imam i psa i mačku.

Ne bih mogla da se odlučim koga više volim, oboje su mi bitni i podjednako ih volim. Prosto ne mogu da napravim razliku među njima. Oni su na svaki način deo naše porodice.

Andrea Gvozdenović (13)

I love animals very much, and that's why I have a dog and a cat. I could not decide who I love more, both of them are important to me, and I like them equally. I just cannot make a difference between them. They are in every way a part of our family.

Vasilije Rakić (13)

Volim životinje, najviše pse.

Volim ih više od mačaka zato što su druželjubivi, verniji, moj pas me svaki dan isprati do škole. Volim i mačke, ali ni približno kao pse. Uvek imam psa za kućnog ljubimca. Volim da se igram sa njim, ispunjava me svaki dan proveden u društvu sa njim.

Vasilije Rakić (13)

I love animals, mostly dogs. I love them more than cats because they are friendly, more faithful, my dog walks me to school every day. I love cats, but not nearly as dogs. I always have a dog for a pet. I like to play with him, every day spent in his company is fulfilling to me.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL "MILADIN MITIĆ", LAPLJE SELO

For decades, "Miladin Mitić" Elementary School in Laplje Selo has educated and brought up many generations of students who later on through high schools, universities and companies and institutions they worked in transferred the knowledge they acquired at this school and thus raised the reputation of this educational institution.

The school recently marked 127 years of its existence. In addition to the residential school, classes are also held in satellite classes in Čaglavica and Preoce (from the first to the fourth grade, and there are also two preschool groups). The school is attended by over 450 students in total. Today's building dates back to 1962, and its first teachers and lecturers were members of the clergy. The school stopped working during the First and Second World War. "Miladin Mitić" School has been named after the People's Liberation Army hero from the area.

Ljubiša Karadžić, Principal of Elementary School "Miladin Mitić" in Laplje Selo told our magazine that the students of this school achieve remarkable results in municipal and regional competitions in all areas of knowledge, and are especially good in natural sciences. He noted that although they do not have enough science laboratories, the students are achieving remarkable results.

"We at the Elementary School only have a computer classroom which is fully equipped with internet, computers and interactive boards. During the past school year, a lot was done in terms of infrastructure owing to the help of the local self-government, the plateau where we are standing did not exist before, the yard has been landscaped, the school walls and the floors have been painted. Unfortunately, due to technical problems we still haven't finished the gym and we hope that this will be completed soon," Karadzic explained. Many clubs are active in the school, starting from art clubs, such as fine arts and music, as well as poetry and some sports clubs.

According to his words, the biggest problem they face is the lack of space since the Gymnasium and the Secondary School of Economy and Commerce that were based in Pristina have been operating in the premises of this school in Laplje Selo since 1999. He adds that the school has a rich tradition, that it can boast of quality teaching staff, and that all teachers are professionally trained.

Ljubiša Karadžić is proud of the successes of his students, saying that there is no peer violence in this school. "This school has produced generations and generations of smart, diligent and successful people who fondly remember the time they spent there. To this day, the work of the entire school and all teachers has been focused on the same goal, which is quality education and bringing up young generations," he emphasized.

They regularly receive For You Magazine at the school, it is much read and particularly popular among students from the fifth to the seventh grade.

At the end of the conversation with our magazine, Principal Karadžić told our readers that success in life requires constant work and discipline.

"My message to students is that education is key to everything, as well as discipline. Today all students have their guaranteed rights, but it is also important that students value the work and efforts of their teachers. They are the ones who share their knowledge and life experiences with them, and therefore it is important that students recognize their efforts. In today's era of modern technology, it is also important that all young people read as much as possible, to constantly work on themselves, because such behavior will lead to a qualitative and prosperous future, Ljubiša Karadžić, principal of Elementary School "Miladin Mitić" considers.

Questionnaire ▶

DO YOU PREFER DOGS OR CATS, AND WHY?

Mihajlo Kostić (13)

Volim životinje i imam psa za kućnog ljubimca. Volim ih više od mačaka zato što su lakši za održavanje, dresiranje i vaspitavanje. Mačke su pomalo nestašne i svojeglave, a psi su nekako životni saputnici i čovekovi najbolji prijatelji.

Mihajlo Kostić (13)

I love animals and I have a dog for a pet. I love them more than cats because they are easier to maintain, train and upbringing. Cats are a bit mischievous and wayward, and dogs are somehow living companions and man's best friend.

Marta Mitić (11)

Ja mnogo volim sve životinje. Uvek sam okružena sa svoja dva ljubimca, mačkom i psom. Ne pravim razliku među njima i podjednako ih volim. Ne bih mogla da se odlučim koga volim više. Životinje i naši ljubimci su sa nama da bi nam ulepšali živote.

Marta Mitić (11)

I love all the animals very much. I'm always surrounded by my two pets, a cat and a dog. I do not make a difference between them and I like them equally. I could not decide who I love more. Animals and our pets are with us to make our lives better.

Nemanja Milić (12)

Na žalost ja živim u zgradi, tako da trenutno nemam kućnog ljubimca, jer smatram da u stanovima nema dovoljno prostora za njih. Ipak odlazim stalno kod ujaka, koji ima veliko dvorište i puno životinja. Volim pse, mislim da ću jednog dana imati nekog lepog i vernog psa.

Nemanja Milić (12)

Unfortunately, I live in a building, so I do not have a pet at the moment, because I do not think there is enough space for them in the apartments. Still, I go constantly to my uncle, who has a large yard and lots of animals. I love dogs, I think that one day I will have a nice and faithful dog.

SVEST O OPASNOSTIMA OD EKSPLOZIVNIH NAPRAVA

Iako je mnogo godina prošlo, eksplozivne naprave koje su ostale iz rata i dalje su ozbiljna pretnja stanovništvu na Kosovu. Ove naprave predstavljaju ozbiljnu pretnju po život i imovinu. To znači da svi moraju biti upoznati sa njihovim prisustvom kao i načinom na koji da reaguju ukoliko naiđu na iste. Na nesreću, pored kontaminiranih područja koja su poznata i na kojima su se odvijale bitke, ova ubojita sredstva se mogu naći na deponijama i đubrištima.

Iskustva iz skorije istorije nam govore, da se na deponijama najčešće nalazi odbačeno vatreno oružje, kao što su pištolji i municija za iste, kao i eksplozivne naprave poput ručnih bombi i tromblona. Ovo ne znači da su deponije minirane ili da se među đubretom nalazi eksploziv! Moramo znati kako da reagujemo u ovakvim situacijama da bi izbegli ozbiljne nezgode. Trenutno na Kosovu postoji rizik od mina i drugih eksplozivnih naprava koje su ostale iz rata. Većina eksplozivnih naprava iz naseljenih mesta (kuća, stanova, dvorišta, ulica, itd.) su uklonjene u periodu između 2000. i 2002. godine. Danas ova ubojita sredstva se mogu naći u gradovima, na planinama i po šumama. Trenutno, ne prođe jedan jedini dan, a da se ne pronađe eksplozivna naprava koju neutrališu agencije za upravljanje vanrednim situacijama.

Svaka naprava ili sredstvo kao što su mine ili eksplozivne naprave ostale iz rata, a koje ne izgledaju normalno, moraju se tretirati sa najvećim oprezom i moraju se prijaviti odgovornim organima. Svaki predmet koji ne izgleda normalno ili se čini da mu mesto nije tu gde se nalazi, mora se smatrati opasnim i ne sme se dirati. Nije svaki predmet koji leži na zemlji igračka, nije svaki predmet među đubretom stvarno đubre! Ovdje se posebno obraćam dečacima! Molim vas budite oprezni. Tokom proteklih godina, oni su najviše bili podložni dejstvu eksplozivnih naprava ostalih iz rata.

Ukoliko naiđete na nepoznat predmet, iako liči na malu loptu, to može biti oružje ili eksploziv, tako da ga ne smete dirati i ne smete pokušavati da vidite šta je zapravo! Ovo je prvo pravilo. Ukoliko ste u grupi, upoznajte ostale pripadnike grupe sa mogućom opasnošću. Pokušajte da obeležite ili blokirate to područje i ne dozvolite nikome da se približi na najmanje 50 metara. Sledeći korak jeste da obavestite vođu vaše grupe i nazovete najbližu stanicu Policije Kosova (KP) ili da pozovete brojeve 192 ili 112.

Drugo pravilo kojeg se morate pridržavati je najvažnije. Kada ste obavestili KP, jedinica za uklanjanje eksplozivnih sredstava, poznatija kao EOD, će dobiti nalog i angažovati specijalizovanu jedinicu. U slučaju nezgode, hitna pomoć će izaći na lice mesta. Tokom čišćenja deponija i đubrišta u okolini škola i domova, svaki sumnjivi predmet se mora prijaviti Policiji Kosova, na brojeve 192 ili 112. Eksploziv i oružje nikada nisu bezbedni. Ti predmeti imaju jednu te istu svrhu, a to je da ubijaju i povređuju.

Imajte na umu, da oni koji nisu svesni ove situacije i neophodnih mera bezbednosti, su najviše izloženi riziku. Ne ignorišite mere bezbednosti i nikad ne pretpostavljate da se nešto loše nikad neće desiti vama! Ukoliko vidite ili pronađete odbačeno oružje ili neeksplozivna ubojita sredstva, ne dirajte ih!

Očistimo Kosovo na bezbedniji način!
Pozovite KP na brojeve 192 ili 112

EXPLOSIVE HAZARDS AWARENESS

device, even if it looks like a small ball, it may be a weapon or explosive, so do not touch, do not try to see what that is! This is the first rule. If you're in a group, make others aware of the suspected threat. Try to mark or block the area, and do not allow anyone to come closer than a minimum of 50 meters. The next step is to inform your team leader, call the nearest Kosovo Police (KP) office, or call 192 or 112.

The second is the most important rule, to follow. Once, KP is informed, the Explosive Ordnance Disposal support known as EOD will be requested and dispatch a specialized unit. In the case of accident, the ambulance will arrive on scene. While working on cleaning the landfills and the garbage around schools and houses, any suspicious item must be reported to Kosovo Police on 192 or 112. Explosive and weapons are never safe. All of them do the same thing, they kill and injure.

Keep in mind, that those who are unaware of this situation and the safety measures, are the ones who are most at risk. Do not ignore the safety measures and never assume that something bad will never happen to you! if you see or find abandoned arms or unexploded devices, do not touch them!

#TOGETHER AGAINST MINES

Down through the years in Kosovo, the Explosive Remnants of War (ERW) still remain a serious threat to the personnel of Kosovo. These devices pose a serious threat to the welfare of people and property. Therefore, everyone needs to be made aware of their presence and how to react when seeing them. Unfortunately, in addition to the known contaminated areas, where previous battles occurred, the landfills and garbage collection areas are also places where these deadly items can be found.

Recent history tells us, that in landfills, the most encountered elements are abandoned small arms, like pistols and their munitions, then explosive ordnance like hand grenades or rifle grenades. It doesn't mean that the landfills are mined, or that the waste contains explosives! We need to know how to act in such situations in order to prevent serious accidents. Currently, Kosovo faces a residual risk for the presence of mines and other ERW. Most explosive devices from inhabited areas (houses, apartments, courtyards, roads, etc.) were removed between 2000-2002. Today, these deadly devices can still be found in towns, on mountains and in woods. ERW can also be found in inhabited areas. Today there is not a single day, in Kosovo, in which an explosive device is not found and neutralized by emergency response agencies.

Any item of Mine/ERW or device that does not look normal should be treated with extreme caution and reported to relevant person. Any item that does not appear to be normal or seems out of place should be considered dangerous and must not be touched. Not all things lying on the ground are toys, and not all things in the garbage are garbage! Here I am specifically addressing the boys! Please be careful. Through the years have been the most effected by ERWs.

„NAMENSKE SNAGE“ ZA ŽIVOTNU SREDINU

Stanje životne sredine na Kosovu nije zadovoljavajuće, to je nešto što svi vidimo svakog dana, stoga svi zajedno možemo imati ulogu u rešavanju ovog problema. Zbog toga je Ministarstvo za životnu sredinu i prostorno planiranje u saradnji sa vladom, deset ministarstava, dve nevladine organizacije, stvorilo namenske snage koje će učestvovati u tromesečnoj akciji da bi ukazali na ovaj problem. Ova akcija ima dva cilja: prvi je čišćenje otpada u našim opštinama, kao i sprovođenje kampanje za podizanja svesti i značaja očuvanja životne sredine kod mladih generacija. Da bismo saznali nešto više o ovoj sjajnoj inicijativi i o tome kako će namenske snage delovati, časopis „For You“ je razgovarao sa vršiocem dužnosti ministra za zaštitu životne sredine i prostorno planiranje, g. Fatmirom Matošijem. Pozivamo vas da pročitate šta je ministar Matoši rekao.

Koji su najaktuelniji problemi vezani za životnu sredinu na Kosovu?

U realnosti, Kosovo danas tretira samo 4% svojih otpadnih voda. Tretiranje otpadnih voda je jedan od glavnih problema. Drugo pitanje je skupljanje otpada, kao i njegovo odlaganje. Ovo poslednje će se, verujem, ipak rešiti kroz strategiju koju pripremamo, koja će se primenjivati na okolnosti i uslove na Kosovu. Prema tome, mi želimo da tretman otpada pretvorimo u biznis, baš kao što je to slučaj u većini razvijenih zemalja. U tu svrhu je Ministarstvo za životnu sredinu napravilo prvi korak dodeljivanjem 7 miliona evra za prvo postrojenje za tretman otpada i nastaviće da to čini i u budućnosti. Drugi problem je degradacija reka i deponija čvrstog otpada, naime, građevinskog otpada. Po ovom pitanju smo u stalnom kontaktu sa Ministarstvom za infrastrukturu. Na Kosovu se razvija nekoliko velikih infrastrukturnih projekata, poput izgradnje autoputeva. Verujem da ćemo uspeli da iskoristimo ove čvrste otpatke od asfaltiranja putnih pravaca, da ih iskoristimo za pravljenje novih puteva i da ih na taj način recikliramo i uklonimo sa deponija koje se obično nalaze pored puteva.

Koliko će akcija čišćenja otpada trajati?

Akcija počinje 15. septembra, na Svetski dan čišćenja. Na ovaj način će se Kosovo pridružiti zemljama širom sveta u obeležavanju ovog dana. Akcija će se ubuduće sprovoditi dva puta nedeljno. Očekujemo da ćemo zaposliti oko 1000 običnih ljudi kao sezonske radnike tokom ova tri meseca. Institucije na Kosovu i građani će se takođe angažovati, kao i kompanije i drugi mehanizmi koji obavljaju javni rad na Kosovu. Jedinstveno je to što će ovoga puta učenici u školama biti uključeni u čišćenje zona koje su u blizini njihovih školskih zgrada, tako da će i oni imati koristi od ovog važnog dela obrazovanja. Glavni fokus biće usmeren na to da deca školskog uzrasta postanu svesna važnosti reciklaže.

Šta vas je navelo da stvorite ove namenske snage?

To je zapravo bila trenutna situacija, jer je pitanje životne sredine jedan od glavnih izazova sa kojima se Kosovo suočava. Radićemo istovremeno na dva aspekta: podizanje svesti i čišćenje. Ovih meseci pokušavamo da stvorimo zelenu policijsku jedinicu u okviru Kosovske policije. Ova jedinica će se baviti isključivo pitanjima životne sredine i nadamo se da ćemo polako doći do nivoa koji želimo.

Koje se još akcije mogu očekivati i da li će potencijalni počinioci biti kažnjeni novčanim kaznama?

Naš cilj nije da kažnjavamo ili naplaćujemo ljudima, naš cilj je da imamo čisto okruženje. Ovo mora biti jasno svim ljudima na Kosovu i svi moraju da doprinesu. Međutim, svi oni koje naprave prekršaje će dobiti novčanu kaznu i moraću da plate te kazne, jer je to jedini način da se postigne zadovoljavajući nivo svesti.

Gde će se sprovesti ova akcija?

Nadamo se da će akcija biti sprovedena u svih 38 opština na Kosovu. Pored toga, u cilju podsticanja maksimalnog angažmana, naše ministarstvo će vrlo brzo objaviti nagrade za najuspješnije opštine. Nagrade će biti prilično značajno finansiranje za završetak projekata vezanih za životnu sredinu u najuspješnijim opštinama tokom ove akcije. Verujem da ćemo 2019. godine imati nekoliko projekata koje će finansirati MŽSPP u raznim opštinama zbog njihovog angažovanja u stvaranju čistije sredine.

Šta će se dogoditi nakon ove akcije?

Rezultate namenskih snaga ćemo videti 15. decembra, kada se akcija završava. Procenićemo situaciju pre 15. septembra i situaciju na kraju akcije, kada se mandat ovih namenskih snaga završi. U zavisnosti od toga će biti predloženi dodatni koraci. Ako se smatra potrebnim da namenske snage nastave da postoje i ako vidimo očekivane rezultate, onda nema sumnje da će nastaviti da funkcionišu. Iako, ponavljam, naša životna sredina ne može biti odgovornost samo jednog odeljenja ili jednog ministarstva. To je odgovornost svakog člana našeg društva i svih institucija. Moje ministarstvo je otvoreno za saradnju sa svakim na Kosovu ko želi pomoći u stvaranju čistije životne sredine.

Koja je vaša poruka mladima?

Pozivam sve mlade da obrate pažnju i brinu o okruženju u kojem žive. Na ovaj način se brinu o svom zdravlju i svojoj budućnosti. Svaki njihov nepromišljeni postupak danas ima direktan uticaj na budućnost našeg društva u odnosu na prirodu i našu životnu sredinu. Mi svi volimo prirodu; svi volimo Kosovo; hajde da ga čuvamo čistim za naše buduće generacije.

THE ENVIRONMENT "TASK FORCE" potential perpetrators?

Kosovo's environmental situation is not good, we can see it every day and we can all play a role to fix this problem. It is for this reason that the Ministry of Environment and Spatial Planning has launched a new initiative in co-operation with ten other government ministries and two non-governmental organizations, by creating a new task force that will engage in a three (3) month action to tackle the problem. This action has two distinct goals; physically clean up our communities, and to create an awareness raising campaign to highlight the importance of maintaining our environment towards the younger generations. To learn more about this great initiative and how this Task Force will work, 'For You' Magazine interviewed the acting Minister for Environment and Spatial Planning, Mr. Fatmir Matoshi. We invite you to read what the Mr. Matoshi had to say.

What are the most acute environmental issues in Kosovo?

In reality, today Kosovo treats only 4% of its black wastewaters. Black wastewater treatment is one of our major problems in Kosovo. Waste collection and waste management are another. The latter though, I believe will be solved through the strategy we are preparing, which will be applicable to the circumstances and conditions in Kosovo. We aim to turn the issue of waste treatment into a business as seen in the majority of the developed world. In order to achieve this, the Ministry of Environment and Spatial Planning have taken the first step by allocating €7m EUR towards the first waste treatment facility in Kosovo and will continue to do so into the future. Other problems that we are faced with are the degradation of our river networks Kosovo wide and solid waste landfills, namely building construction waste being carelessly discarded. To tackle this problem, we are in continuous contact with the Ministry of Infrastructure. Kosovo is currently undertaking several major construction projects such as the construction of our new highways, and I believe that with proper care and attention we will manage to make best use of the solid waste materials by recycling it into our paving of the new road beds thereby removing this solid waste from our beautiful countryside.

How long will the waste cleaning initiative last?

The initiative started on the 15th September, the same day as the international World Cleanup Day. This way Kosovo will join other countries from around the world in marking this very important day. The cleanup will continue about twice a week into the future. This initiative will give seasonal employment to about one thousand (1,000) seasonal workers during these three months. Institutions in Kosovo and civil servants will also be engaged in these activities including companies and other mechanisms that are contracted to perform public work in Kosovo. All schoolchildren will be encouraged to get involved in these activities; however their important work will be done in close proximity to their schools so that they do not miss out on their valuable education. The main emphasis for the children will be on creating greater awareness and education about recycling.

What motivated you to create this task force?

In fact, it is due to the current situation in Kosovo, because the environment is ranked among one of the main challenges that we are facing. We successfully achieve our aim by working simultaneously on two aspects, creating greater awareness and the cleaning up of our environment. During these three months we are to create a green police unit within the Kosovo Police, which is a first here in Kosovo. This unit will exclusively handle environmental issues and we hope that together working slowly we will reach the desired level that we all wish to achieve.

What other actions can be expected, will there be fines for the potential perpetrators?

Our immediate aim is to clean up the environment and we don't necessarily want to have to punish or fine people unless we have to.

The most important message is that the people of Kosovo all have a part to play and have to contribute. However, all those who will cause violations will be fined and they will have to pay those fines, because this is the only way to achieve a satisfactory level of awareness.

Where will this action be conducted?

We hope that this initiative will be positively conducted in all 38 municipalities in Kosovo. In addition and in order to entice maximum engagement our ministry will very soon publish the rewards available for the most successful municipalities. These rewards will be quite significant, to include financing for the completion of environmental projects going to the most successful municipalities during this action. I believe that in 2019 we will have several projects financed by the MESP throughout various municipalities due to their engagement in creating a cleaner environment.

What will happen after this action?

We will see the results of the task force on the 15th December, when the initiative is finished. We will compare the situation before starting on the 15th September and then assess the situation at the end of the action, when the mandate of this task force ends. Depending on the outcome further steps will be proposed. If it is deemed necessary for the task force to exist and if we see the expected results, then there is no doubt that it will continue to operate. So the emphasis really is in everybody fully engaging with this initiative our living environment cannot just be left to the responsibility of only one department or one ministry, it is a collective responsibility of every member of our society and all our institutions. My ministry is open to cooperation with each and every one in Kosovo that wishes to help in creating a cleaner environment.

What is your message to the youth?

I appeal to all the young people to pay attention and take care of the environment where they live. This way, they take care of their health and their future. Every reckless action of theirs today has a direct impact on their future and the future of our society in relation to our living environment. We all love nature, we all love Kosovo; let us keep it clean for our future generations.

Najglasnije životinje na zemlji

Da li vam je nekada neko rekao da ste previše bučni? Niste vi ništa u poređenju sa ovim bučnim životinjama.

Za životinje je UGLAVNOM najbolje da budu neprimetne, ali ponekad je korisno kada su glasne, i to veoma glasne. Dok normalan ljudski razgovor dostiže oko 60 decibela (dB), neke životinje mogu da krešte, vrište i viču glasnije od voza u metrou (100 dB). Ljudski prag bola je na 120 dB, a kada je zvuk na nivou od 160 dB vaša bubna opna će pući. Međutim, mnogi glasni pozivi životinja nisu namenjeni ljudskim ušima. Zvukovi koje ove životinje proizvode nisu samo deo njihove „predstave”; oni se šire preko kopna i kroz more, i svaki ima svoju svrhu. Društveno motivisani razlozi uključuju pronalaženje druge jedinice, odbranu teritorije, udvaranje partneru ili upozoravanje saputnika zbog blizine grabljivica. Ovo su najglasnije životinje na svetu:

Pištolj-škampa

Ova škampa je na prvom mestu naše liste kao najglasnija živa životinja, čiji zvuk prelazi nivo od 200 dB – zvuk koji proizvodi je glasniji od pucnja. Sreća je da žive u moru jer ljudsko uvo može da izdrži zvuk na nivou do 120 dB, a glasniji zvuk od tog može izazvati ekstremne bolove u našim ušima što može dovesti do gluvoće.

Plavi kit

Plavi kitovi mogu izuzetno glasno zviždati jedni drugima. Njihove sirene mogu doseći nivo od 188 dB, što je glasnije od mlaznog motora ili eksplozije bombe. Zvuk se pod vodom prostire dalje, tako da kitovi mogu čuti jedni druge na preko 800 km.

Blue whale

Blue whales can make extremely loud whistling calls each other. Their sirens can reach 188dB, louder than jet engine or grenade explosion. Sound carries further underwater, so the whales can be heard over 800km away.

Tiger pistol shrimp

This shrimp leads the list as the loudest living animal, topping over 200dB - louder than a gunshot. Fortunately, they live under the sea because the human ear can only sustain sounds up to 120dB, any louder can cause extreme pain to our ears possibly resulting in deafness.

zvuk – od preko 140 dB, što je glasnije od motorne testere – kako bi pratili kretanje ribe u vodi.

Greater bulldog bat

Bats are one of the few mammals that can use sound to navigate - a tactic called echolocation. The greater bulldog bat is currently the loudest known member of the family. They use their exceptionally loud sound – exceeding 140dB, louder than a chainsaw – to track the movement of fish in water pools.

Slepi miš zvani

„veliki budog”
Slepi miš je jedan od retkih sisara koji može koristiti zvuk za navigaciju, što je taktika zvana ehokacija. Slepi miš zvani „veliki budog” je trenutno najglasniji poznati član ove porodice. Oni koriste izuzetno glasan mak zatim pojačava ovaj zvuk.

Green grocer cicada

Cicadas are the loudest insect. Only

Cvrčak zvani „zeleni bakalin”

Cikade ili cvrčci su najglasniji insekti. Samo mužjaci pevaju i to čine da bi privukli ženku. Dve vrste, zeleni bakalin i žuti ponedeljak, proizvode buku iznad 120 dB i mogu se čuti na 2,4 km. Svaki tip ima drugu pesmu, tako da ne privlači ženke druge vrste. Cikade su drugačije od svih drugih insekata po tome što u abdomenu imaju bubanj-organ zvani timbal. Zatezanjem se unutrašnji mišići spuštaju i proizvode pulsirajući zvuk. Šuplji sto-the males sing and they do so to call for a female. Two species, the green grocer and yellow monday, produce noise in excess of 120dB and can be heard from 2.4km away. Each type has a different song so they don't attract females of a different species. Cicadas are different to all other insects in that they have a musical drums in their abdomen called tymbals. Contracting the internal muscles causes them to buckle inwards and produce a pulse of sound. The hollow abdomen then amplifies the sound.

The loudest animals on earth

Ever been called a loudmouth? You've got nothing on these noisy animals.

MOST OF THE TIME, it's in an animal's best interest to be undetectable, but sometimes it's useful to be loud - very loud. While a normal human conversation registers at about 60 decibels (dB), some animals can screech, scream and holler much louder than a subway train (100dB). The human threshold of pain is 120dB, and at 160dB your eardrum will rupture, but many loud animal calls are not designed for human ears. The sounds these animals make are not just for show; spread over land and sea, each has a purpose. Socially motivated reasons include finding another individual, defending territory, romancing a mate or warning companions of predators. Here are the world's loudest animals:

Lav

Lav, kao jedna od najprepoznatljivijih velikih mačaka, može rikati jačinom do 114 dB, a zvuk se prenosi na više od 8km. A njima i jeste potrebna daljina, jer se životni prostor jednog čopora se može prostirati i na više od 260 kvadratnih kilometara. Lavovi riču iz više razloga. Jedan je uspostavljanje dominacije na određenoj teritoriji. Druga teorija ukazuje na to da rikanje može biti način društvene komunikacije između članova porodice u čoporu. Lavovi su jedine mačke koji putuju u čoporu.

Lion

One of the most recognisable big cats, the lion can roar to a level of 114dB, carried over 8km. And they need the distance - a pride's home range can span over 260sq.km. Lions roar for several different reasons; one is to establish territory. Another theory suggests that roaring can be a method of social communication between family members in a pride. Lions are the only felines that travel in packs.

„ki“, pomaže ženka da lociraju potencijalne partnere.

Coqui frog

A single coqui frog can generate sounds between 90-100dB - as loud as a jackhammer. There are two parts to each call, the first, 'co', is to deter other males and second, the 'kee' helps females locate their potential mates.

Koki žaba

Koki žaba može proizvesti zvuk jačine od 90-100 dB, što je glasno kao bušilica. Svaki poziv se sastoji od dva dela, prvi je „ko“, koji služi za odvratanje drugih mužjaka, dok drugi deo,

Vuk

Među nekima od najistaknutijih životinjskih zvukova je zavijanje vukova koje može dostići jačinu do 90 dB, što je malo slabije od buke koju proizvodi voz u metrou. Vukovi obično prelaze velike razdaljine i velike prostore kako bi pronašli hranu i smatra se da zavijaju kako bi pratili lokaciju drugih jedinki iz svog čopora. Svrha zavijanja takođe može biti objavljivanje položaja čopora i uspostavljanje njegove teritorije.

Wolf

Among one of the most distinguishable animal noises of all, a wolf's howl can reach 90dB, just a little below the blare of a subway train. Wolves commonly travel over long distances and great expanses to find food and it's thought they howl to help them keep track of the location of their pack mates. Howling can also be for the purpose of announcing a pack's position and establishing their territory.

da naprave tako jake zvuke jer imaju uvećanu hipoidnu kost u grlu.

Howler monkey

These monkeys are very social and are commonly found in large groups. Their calls can reach 90dB and can be heard up to almost 5km away when they call as a troop. The calls are often used as an announcement of a group's position and a warning to others to stay out of their territory. Howlers are able to make such sounds because they have an enlarged hyoid bone in their throat.

Drekavac ili urlikavac

Ovi majmuni su veoma društveni i najčešće žive u velikim grupama. Njihov zov može da dostigne 90 dB i može se čuti na skoro 5km kada se oglašavaju u horu. Svrha njihovog zova je obično da objave položaj grupe i da upozore druge da ostanu van njihove teritorije. Drekavci su u stanju

LIGA UEFA

Početak septembra 2018, fudbalski navijači širom Evrope imali su priliku da gledaju prve utakmice u UEFA Ligi nacija. Sa obzirom da je ovo potpuno novo takmičenje, pozivamo vas da pročitate ovaj članak i naučite sve što vam je potrebno da znate o njegovom formatu i nameni.

Zašto je stvorena UEFA Liga nacija?

Ovo takmičenje proizlazi iz želje UEFE i 55 članica ove federacije da obnove i unaprede kvalitet fudbalskih reprezentacija. Ne zamenjuje Evropsko prvenstvo; međutim, zamenjuje većinu prijateljskih utakmica koje su do sada igrane u skladu sa kalendarom FIFA utakmica između nacionalnih timova. Kažemo većinu prijateljskih utakmica jer UEFA ne želi da ih u potpunosti isključi, posebno one protiv timova sa drugih kontinenata. Ovo je odgovor na sve veće zahteve trenera, igrača ali i navijača, za bolje-odgovarajućim takmičenjima za nacionalne reprezentacije.

Kakav je format ovog takmičenja?

55 evropskih nacionalnih reprezentacija podeljeno je u četiri lige (A, B, C i D) u skladu sa koeficijentom rangiranja nacionalnih federacija od 11. oktobra 2017. godine. Lige imaju po četiri grupe, ali broj timova po grupama nije isti. Dakle, lige A i B imaju četiri grupe sa po tri reprezentacije, liga C ima jednu grupu sastavljenu od tri reprezentacije i tri grupe sastavljane od četiri reprezentacije, a liga D ima četiri grupe sa po četiri tima, i to su:

LIGA A

Grupa A1: Nemačka, Francuska i Holandija;
Grupa A2: Belgija, Švajcarska i Island;
Grupa A3: Portugalija, Italija i Poljska; i
Grupa A4: Španija, Engleska i Hrvatska

LIGA B

Grupa B1: Slovačka, Ukrajina i Češka;
Grupa B2: Rusija, Švedska i Turska;
Grupa B3: Austrija, Bosna i Hercegovina i Severna Irska; i Grupa B4: Vels, Republika Irska i Danska.

LIGA C

Grupa C1: Škotska, Albanija i Izrael;

Grupa C2: Mađarska, Grčka, Finska i Estonija;

Grupa C3: Slovenija, Norveška, Bugarska i Kipar; i

Grupa C4: Rumunija, Srbija, Crna Gora i Litvanija.

LIGA D

Grupa D1: Gruzija, Latvija, Kazahstan i Andora;

Grupa D2: Belorusija, Luksemburg, Moldavija i San Marino;

Grupa D3: Azerbejdžan, Farska Ostrva, Malta i Kosovo

Grupa D4: BJR Makedonija, Jermenija, Lihtenštajn i Gibraltar

Šta nacionalni tim dobija od UEFA Lige nacija?

Pre svega, kako sam naziv takmičenja kaže, Liga nacija pruža napredovanje i ispadanje nacionalnih timova iz njihovih liga. Timovi koji su rangirani kao poslednji u svojim grupama, u sledećem krugu biće relegirani u ligu ispod. Dok će pobednici grupa biti promovisani u višu ligu, osim pobednika lige A. U junu 2019. godine, će se takmičiti u finalu UEFA Lige nacija, odnosno u dve polufinalne utakmice, jednoj utakmici za treće mesto i u finalu za titulu Lige šampiona nacija. Sledeći krug takmičenja će se održati 2020-2021.

Kroz ovu formulu finansijska dobit za svaki tim je takođe značajan. Ukupan nagradni fond za ovo inaturalno izdanje UEFA Lige nacija biće 76.250.000 € i biće podeljen među svih 55 reprezentacija na sledeći način:

€ 1,500,000 za svaki tim u ligi A
€ 1,000,000 za svaki tim u ligi B
€ 750,000 za svaki tim u ligi C
€ 500,000 za svaki tim u ligi D

Pored toga, pobednicima u svakoj grupi u svakoj ligi biće dodeljen isti iznos novca (tj. svaki od pobednika u grupi C dobiće dodatnih 750.000 evra), čime se udvostručuje njihova zarada.

Kako Liga UEFA Nacija utiče na kvalifikaciju UEFA EURO 2020?

Rezultati koji su postignuti u Ligi Nacija će odrediti plasman nacionalnih timova u žrebove za UEFA EURO 2020 kvalifikacije. Pored toga, UEFA je dodelila četiri dodatna mesta (po jedna za svaku od liga) da učestvuju na predstojećem Evropskom prvenstvu 2020. godine.

Kvalifikaciona formula za sledeću Evropsko prvenstvo biće sledeća. Tokom kvalifikacija (koji će se održati u martu, junu, septembru, oktobru i novembru 2019. godine) biće 10 grupa, pet grupa sa po pet timova i pet grupa sa po šest timova. Prva dva mesta iz svake grupe automatski osvajaju mesto na Evropskom prvenstvu. Zatim, u svakoj od četiri liga, četiri najbolje plasirane ekipe u svakoj grupi koja se nisu kvalifikovala za Euro 2020 kroz kvalifikacije će igrati u "play-off" sistemu za još jednu priliku da se kvalifikuju. Dobra vest je da svaka liga ima svoje mesto na UEFA EURO 2020. godine. To povećava šanse za manje ekipe poput Kosova, koje se prvi put takmiči na evropskim fudbalskim takmičenjima, da učestvuju na ovom takmičenju.

UEFA NATIONS LEAGUE

UEFA NATIONS LEAGUE

TifoFINANCES

In early September 2018, football fans across Europe had the chance to watch the first games in the UEFA Nations League. Considering that this is an entirely new competition we invite you to read this article and learn everything you need to know about its format and purpose.

Why was the UEFA Nations League created?

This competition stems from the wish of UEFA and its 55 member federations to renew and improve the quality of national teams' football. It doesn't replace the European Championship; however, it replaces most of the friendly matches that have been played until now in compliance with the FIFA's calendar of national teams' matches. We say most of the friendly matches because UEFA does not want to rule them out completely, especially the ones against teams from other continents. This is a response towards the increasing demands from coaches, players but fans as well for a more appropriate competition for the national teams.

What is this competitions' format?

The 55 European national teams are divided into four leagues (A, B, C and D) in accordance with the national federations' ranking coefficient of October 11th, 2017. The leagues have four groups each but the number of teams per groups is not the same. So, Leagues A and B have four groups with three teams each, League C has one group with three teams and three groups of four teams and League D has four groups with four teams each, and they are:

LEAGUE A

Group A1: Germany, France and Holland;
Group A2: Belgium, Switzerland and Island;
Group A3: Portugal, Italy and Poland; and Group A4: Spain, England and Croatia

LEAGUE B

Group B1: Slovakia, Ukraine and Czech Republic;
Group B2: Russia, Sweden and Turkey;

Group B3: Austria, Bosnia and Hercegovina, and Northern Ireland; and Group B4: Wales, Republic of Ireland and Denmark.

LEAGUE C

Group C1: Scotland, Albania and Israel;
Group C2: Hungary, Greece, Finland and Estonia; Group C3: Slovenia, Norway, Bulgaria and Cyprus; and Group C4: Romania, Serbia, Montenegro and Lithuania.

LEAGUE D

Group D1: Georgia, Latvia, Kazakhstan and Andorra;
Group D2: Belorussia, Luxembourg, Moldavia and San Marino;
Group D3: Azerbaijan, Faroe Islands, Malta and Kosovo
Group D4: FYR of Macedonia, Armenia, Lichtenstein and Gibraltar

What do the national teams gain from the UEFA Nations League?

First of all, as the name of the competition itself implies, the Nations League provides promotion and relegation of the national teams from their respective leagues. Teams that are ranked last in their groups, in the next edition will be relegated one league below. Whereas, the winners of the groups will get promoted one league higher, except the winners of League A. In June 2019 the later will compete in the UEFA Nations League finals, namely the two semi-final games, one third place game and the final for the title of the Nations League Champion. The next edition of this competition will take place in 2020-2021.

Through this formula the financial profit for each team is considerable as well. The total amount of rewards for this inaugural edition of the UEFA Nations League will be € 76,250,000 and it will be divided to all 55 participating national teams as follows:

€ 1,500,000 for each of the teams in League A

€ 1,000,000 for each of the teams in League B

€ 750,000 for each of the teams in League C

€ 500,000 for each of the teams in League D

In addition, the winners of each group in each league will be awarded the same amount of money (i.e. each of the group winners in League C will get an additional € 750,000), thus doubling their earnings.

How does the UEFA Nations League impact the UEFA EURO 2020 qualification?

The results achieved in the Nations League will determine the placement of the national teams in the draw pots for the UEFA EURO 2020 qualifiers. In addition, UEFA has allocated four additional spots (one for each of the leagues) to participate in the upcoming European 2020 Championship.

The qualification formula for the next European Championship will be as follows. During the qualifiers (that will be conducted in March, June, September, October and November 2019) there will be 10 groups, five groups with five teams each and five other groups with six teams. The first two places from each group automatically win a spot for the European Championship. Then, in each of the four leagues, the four best placed teams in each group that have not qualified for the Euro 2020 through the qualifiers will play between them in a "play-off" system for a second chance to qualify. The good news is that each League has a spot of its own to UEFA EURO 2020. This increases the chances to participate in this tournament for smaller teams such as Kosovo that competes for the first time ever in European football competitions.

“DAN JEDNAKOSTI ŽENA”

U subotu 28. avgusta je u vojnom kampu „Bondstil” u opštini Uroševac proslavljen Dan jednakosti žena. Događaju su prisustvovali i komandant Kfora general-major Salvatore Kuočić, kao i komandant Višenacionalne borbene grupe istok, pukovnik Nik Dučić. Nakon uvodnih reči komandanta Kfora Kuočića i pukovnika Dučića, kao i kroz lične priče i poglede četiri govornice različitog porekla, učesnici su imali priliku da saznaju više o izazovima sa kojima se žene iz različitih zemalja i kultura suočavaju.

Štaviše, jedan od glavnih zaključaka koji su se mogli izvesti iz priča ove četiri govornice je da se žene, bez obzira na to odakle dolaze, nažalost, i dan-danas ne smatraju jednakim muškarcima.

Prvi govornik je bila desetar Hala Kadem iz Vojske SAD koja je istakla da je rođena i odrasla u Bagdadu, u Iraku. Kako kaže, do svoje trinaeste godine je imala veoma srećno detinjstvo ispunjeno ljubavi i nežnošću u svojoj porodici. Međutim, negde u to vreme je i prvi put otkrila koliko će njen život biti težak u tom društvu.

„Kada sam bila mala imala sam bicikl koji sam mnogo volela i zbog toga što sam toliko volela da se njime vozim, majka me je često slala u kupovinu hleba za porodicu. Jednoga dana dok sam se vraćala kući presrelo me je nekoliko muškaraca koji su me pitali ko sam i kuda idem. Nakon što sam im objasnila, rekli su mi da nije dobro lutam naokolo sama na biciklu i da je to opasno. I nisu su se tu zaustavili, već su došli kod mene kući i održali predavanje mojim roditeljima o tome kako mi više ne bi trebalo biti dozvoljeno da vozim bicikl. Od tog dana više nisam imala bicikl i uprkos tome što sam još uvek bila dete, ponašali su se prema meni kao prema odrasloj ženi,” istakla je desetar Kadim. Nastavila je svoju priču rekavši da su se vremenom ove razlike u ponašanju tokom njenog studiranja samo pogoršavale. Smatra da je najgore to što je većina devojaka prihvatila tu činjenicu, dok je ona sama bila odlučna da se bori protiv toga svim svojim snagama. Upravo je ta odlučnost da ne odustane i da ne prihvati da je smatraju građaninom drugog reda nagnala desetara Kadim da se preseli u Sjedinjene Američke Države i da potom pristupi Vojski SAD. Nakon što je desetar Kadim završila svoj govor, reč je dobila još jedna Amerikanka, gospođa Kimberli Rajf. U poređenju sa prvom govornicom, gospođa Rajf se, kao žena, nije suočavala sa toliko diskriminativnim ponašanjem, ali se ipak suočila sa puno izazova na svom putu ka uspešnoj karijeri. Još od srednje škole je najveći san gospođe Rajf bio da postane policajac. Ali njen san se nije ostvario jer nije ispunjavala zahtev vezan za visinu, naime bilo je potrebno biti najmanje 175 cm visok kako bi ste postali policajac, a ona je znatno niža. Srećom, nakon izvesnog vremena je ovaj zahtev uklonjen i bilo joj je dozvoljeno da krene za svojim snom, ali pod uslovom da počne da trenira boričake veštine i postane dobra u tome. Gospođa Rajf nije odustala ni kada se suočila sa ovim preprekama i vremenom je uspela da izgradi veoma uspešnu karijeru radeći u mnogim zemljama širom sveta, uključujući Kosovo, gde je trenutno na poziciji upravnik Programa za Međunarodnu kriminalno-istraživačku obuku (ICITAP) Odseka za pravdu SAD.

Treća govornica je bila savetnica za rodna pitanja u Glavnom štabu Kfora u Prištini, potpukovnica Suzana Tkavc. Tokom svog obraćanja, potpukovnik Tkavc je izjavila da je odrasla u skladu sa poštovanjem prava rodne ravnopravnosti. Uvek je mislila da je ravnopravna sa drugima i da može da ostvari sve ciljeve na koje se odlučila. Međutim, tokom svog života shvatila je da svi ne dele ista uverenja. “Radi se o rodnom ulogama, vrednostima i očekivanjima u okviru odgovarajućeg društva, koji dizajniraju um i žene i muškaraca, odnosno kako se očekuje da se ponašaju, šta je prihvatljivo i šta nije. Žene imaju mnoga ograničenja, da dokažu da su one jednako sposobne kao i muškarci. Zatim se potpukovnik Tkavc fokusirala na situaciju rodne ravnopravnosti u svetu. “Još uvek govorimo o raznim nivoima rodne ravnopravnosti između zemalja, ali ne možemo reći da postoji zemlja koja je potpuno dostigla rodnu ravnopravnost”. Naglasila je da je rodna ravnopravnost u korelaciji s mirom i sigurnošću, a prema njenim rečima glavni akcenat treba staviti na obrazovanje i podizanje svesti celokupnog društva o značaju jednakosti žena. “Na kraju krajeva, rodna ravnopravnost je stanje uma. Jednom kada podignemo svest o rodnoj ravnopravnosti i jednakim mogućnostima, onda ćemo stvoriti i održiv mir.”

Poslednja govornica na ovom događaju je bila prva žena general u Kosovskim bezbednosnim snagama, brigadni general Irfete Spahiu. Ona je tokom svog govora naglasila da u vreme kada je ona pristupila KBS (u to vreme KZS) većina ljudi na Kosovu je mislila da je ovaj posao samo za žene. Zbog toga je morala da radi dupli posao: da na jednoj strani teži tome da uspešno obavlja svoj posao, a sa druge strane da ubeđuje svoje kolege da žena može da obavlja ovaj posao bez problema. General Spahiu je takođe istakla da prakse kao što je postavljanje kvota za učešće žena ne garantuju kvalitet. Stoga je pozvala na ukidanje prakse po kojoj se zanimanja gledaju kroz prizmu mogućnosti ili nemogućnosti žene da obavlja neki posao. Žene širom sveta su već dokazale da mogu da obavljaju svaki posao koji im se da. Ono na šta mi moramo da se fokusiramo je da vidimo koja osoba ima najbolje profesionalne kvalifikacije za određenu poziciju.

Na kraju događaja je naš tim imao zadovoljstvo da se sastane sa govornicama koje su poručile mladima, a posebno devojčicama na Kosovu, da nikada ne odustaju i da nastave da rade na ostvarenju svojih snova.

“WOMEN’S EQUALITY DAY”

On August 2018, Women's Equality Day was celebrated at the military base Camp Bondsteel in Ferizaj Municipality. This activity was attended by KFOR Commander Major General Salvatore Cuoci, and the Multinational Battle Group East Commander, Colonel Nick Ducich. After the opening remarks by M.G. Cuoci and Colonel Ducich, and after the personal stories and viewpoints' of four panellists from different backgrounds, the participants of this event got the chance to learn more about the challenges women from various countries and cultures have faced. In fact one of the main conclusions from the stories of the four speakers was that regardless of where they come from, to this day, women are not treated equally to men. The first speaker was Corporal Hala Kadhem from the US Armed Forces who emphasized that she was born and raised in Baghdad, Iraq. According to her until the age of 13 she had a very happy childhood filled with love and care from her family. However, at this age she discovered how hard her life would be in that society. “When I was little I had a bike that I loved and because I loved to ride it so much my mother would often send me to buy bread for my family. One day, on my way back I was met by several men that asked who I was and where was I going. After I told them who I was they told me it was not good for me to wander around on a bike and that it was dangerous. The men didn't leave it with that as they also came to my home and lectured my parents that I should not be permitted to ride my bike anymore. From that day I was separated from my bike and although I was still a child I was treated as an adult woman,” Corporal Kadeem explained. She continued that in time the differential treatment only got worse during her studies. According to her the most disturbing thing was that most of the girls accepted this fact, which Corporal Kadhem was determined to fight back.

It was the determination not to give up and to not accept to be seen as a second rank citizen that pushed Corporal Kadeem to move to the United States and joined the US Armed Forces.

After Corporal Kadhem concluded the floor was given to another American lady, Mrs. Kimberly Riffe. In comparison to the first speaker, Mrs. Riffe did not face such discriminating treatment as a woman, but she still had to face many challenges in her path to a successful career. Since high school Mrs. Riffe's greatest dream was to become a police officer. She attempted to join the police academy right after high school; however, she did not meet the height requirement of 175 cm to become a police officer.

After some time this requirement was removed and she was permitted to pursue her dream but with the condition that she would become proficient in martial arts. Mrs. Riffe didn't give up in the face of these obstacles. Over the years, she managed to build a very successful career by serving in many countries around the world including Kosovo, where she is the Program Manager of International Criminal Investigative Training Assistance Program (ICITAP) of the US Department of Justice.

The third speaker was the gender advisor for the Commander of KFOR, Lieutenant Colonel Suzana Tkavc. During her address, Lieutenant Colonel Tkavc shared that she was raised in a gender equality manner. She always thought that she was equal towards others and could obtain whatever goals she set her mind to. However, during her life, she realized that not all share the same beliefs. “It is about gender roles, values and expectations within the respective society, which design a mind-set of women and men, how they are expected to behave, what is acceptable and what is not. Women have many limitations such as having to prove that they are just as capable as men, and so on.” Furthermore, Lieutenant Colonel Tkavc focused on the situation of gender equality in the world. “We still speak about the various levels of gender equality between countries, but we cannot say that there is a country who has already completely reached gender equality.” She emphasized that gender equality is correlated to peace and security, and according to her, the main emphasis should be put on education and raising the awareness of the entire society on the importance of women's equality. “After all, gender equality is a mind-set. Once we raise awareness towards gender equality and equal opportunity, then we will also gain sustainable peace.

The last speaker of this panel was the first Kosovan female Brigadier General Irfete Spahiu. During her address General Spahiu highlighted that when she joined the organization most of the people in Kosovo thought this occupation was only for men. As a result she always had to do two jobs: on one side strive to successfully perform her duties and on the other to convince her colleagues that a woman could do this job without any problems. General Spahiu also stressed that practices such as setting female quotas doesn't necessarily reflect in quality. Therefore, she called for an end to the practice of seeing occupations through the lens of whether a job could or could not be done by a female. Women all over the world have already proven that they can perform any job they are given. What we must concentrate on is to seeing which individuals have the best professional qualifications for a certain position.

At the end of this activity our team had the pleasure of meeting with the members of this panel and they all appealed to the youth and especially girls of Kosovo to never quit and keep working to make their dreams come true.

ŠKOLA JE NAJVEĆE BLAGO!

Svako ima svoj školski doživljaj i svaki se razlikuje. Pričaću vam o mom školskom doživljaju. Hteo sam da što pre pođem u školu jer nisam voleo da spavam. To se konačno desilo. Bio sam iznenađen i kucalo mi je srce i kucalo, kucalo. Upoznao sam nove prijatelje. Prvi dan u školi, koliko se ja sećam je bio odličan. U prvom razredu smo učili mnogo tih lakih stvari. Na primer, iz matematike smo učili sabiranje i oduzimanje. To je bilo lako. Premeštajući se od klupe do klupe, premestio sam se kod svog budućeg najboljeg prijatelja Vasilija. Nisam ni znao, ni očekivao, a ni mislio da mi je on najbolji prijatelj. Prvi put pored njega u klupi, postideo sam se. Sve se promenilo kad smo se navikli. I kad pre stiže letnji raspust. U prvom razredu sam zaključio da je prijateljstvo najveće blago. Drugi razred je bio malo teži. Pretpostavljam da smo se mi malo uplašili kad smo učili do broja 100. Nekoliko dana kasnije bilo je prosto kao pasulj. U drugom razredu su nas dočekali novi laminati, table i zidovi.

Jedina stvar, koja mi se i dan danas ne sviđa je to što smo morali da se izujemo kada bi ulazili u učionicu. Tada je bio moj rođendan. Kada je prošao imali smo zimski i prolećni raspust. Kad je prošao moj rođendan, odmah sam pozeleo da krenem u treći razred. Moji roditelji su se obradovali zbog velikog broja petica. Ponovo rođendan! Bilo je zastrašujuće kada smo učili do broja 1000. Uhvatila me je panika. Nešto sam mnogo spavao na likovnom, ne donosim uvek crteže, ali mislim da sam sad postao aktivniji. Danas sam spreman da pročitam ovo. Zaključio sam da je meni literarni zadatak uvek bio najbolji!

Škola je najveće blago zato što u njoj možeš da sve saznaš i to na najzabavniji način.

STIŽE NAM I JESEN!

Leto prođe ko dlanom od dlan i sve su kraći koraci sunca... Stigao je i oktobar. Šuma je dobila nove oktobarske boje. Na livadi protrči po neki zec i srna. Dani su kišoviti i hladniji. Noći duže traju, a dani kraće. U poljima ljudi seju pšenicu. Ptice su otišle na jug, a vrapci ostali i traže ispod koje će strehe napraviti gnezda. Sa drveta lagano padaju: žuti, narandžasti, braon i bakarni lisovi. Na sve strane čuje se glasno brujanje motornih testera. Oseća se miris ukusnih plodova. Toplo sunce još uvek nas nije napustilo. Dok hodam kroz gustu šumu ispod mojih stopala šuška šareno lišće i pucketaju opale grančice.

Boje oktobra donose nam mir posle dugog i razigranog leta.

SCHOOL IS THE GREATEST TREASURE!

Everyone has their own experience with the school and they are all different from one another. I will tell you about my school experience. I wanted to start school as early as possible because I didn't like to sleep. And then it finally happened. It came rather as a surprise and my heart kept beating and beating... I met new friends. The first day at school, as far as I can remember, was great. In the first grade, we've learned many of these easy things. For example, in math, we were taught addition and subtraction. That was easy. As I was switching between the desks, I ended up sitting next to my future best friend Vasilije, without knowing or expecting, or even realizing that he was my best friend. First time sitting next to him at the table, I was feeling shy. Everything changed when we got used to each other. Then, summer break came in no time. In the first grade, I realized that friendship is the greatest treasure. The second grade was a bit harder. I guess we were a bit afraid of learning to count to 100. Few days later it was a piece of cake. In the second grade, we came to a classroom with new floors, boards and walls.

The only thing that I dislike to this day is that we had to take our shoes off before entering the classroom. Then my birthday came. After that, we had winter and spring break. After my birthday, I immediately wanted to start the third grade. My parents were happy that I had so many A's. My birthday again! It was rather scary when we learned to count to 1000. I started to panic. I always used to sleep a lot during art classes, I did not bring my drawings regularly, but I think that now I have become more active. Today, I am ready to read this. I realized that my essays were always the best!

School is the greatest treasure because you can learn everything there, in the funniest way.

HERE COMES THE FALL!

The summer is gone before you know it, and the sun's steps are getting shorter and shorter... And October is here. The forest took on new, October colours. A rabbit or a doe can be seen running through the meadow now and then. The days have become rainier and colder. The nights are longer and the days are shorter. People sow wheat in the fields. The birds went south, while sparrows have stayed, looking for a place under the roofs to make their nests. Yellow, orange, brown and copper leaves slowly fall from the trees. Chainsaw noise is everywhere. The smell of delicious fruits is in the air. The sun is still warm. As I walk through the dense forest, I hear colourful leaves rustling and fallen twigs crackling under my feet.

October colours bring us peace after a long and playful summer.
